WIRELESS MESSAGE FROM SANTA CLAUS; HE'S COMING.

Arrangements are already under way for the second annual Christmas tree and children's festival to be given under the auspices of the Mount Carmel Aid Society, December 20th at the Alhambra theatre. The pupils of Notre Dame Academy will provide the program and the general public as well as the parents will be given an opportunity to see what is being done by the teachers of Redwood's largest private school.

The Christmas tree feature so pleasantly remembered by all who attended in 1911, will be more elaborate this year. Mr. Weatherbee, who generously donated the handsome tree last year has another magnificent one now under observation and is waiting for it to grow a foot or two larger before he applies the ax.

The committee wishes to have it made clear to everyone that there will be a present for every child in Redwood under 12 years, irrespective of color, creed, nationality, race, disposition or degree of cleanliness. All will be made welcome, and those whom Santa Claus missed in the past through the slowness of daddy's purse will be given free tickets if their parents apply for same at any of the business places where the announcement cards are on display. The ladies on the committee are, Mrs. J. Winter, Mrs. Jamieson, Mrs. Agrotti, Mrs. J. Dickey and Mrs. M. Gilbert.

TREASURER CHAMBERLAIN HAS HAPPY BIRTHDAY.

P. P. Chamberlain has had a lot of birthdays in his lifetime and he looks forward to many more, but none of his birth anniversaries has been made a more happy occasion than his seventy-second which occurred last Friday. A number of Mr. Chamberlain's friends got together and planned a surprise for him. In keeping the matter secret a lot of prevarication had to be resorted to but the scheme was successfully carried out and during the evening Chamberlain was thrust into an automobile and carried off to Bernasque's. When the party reached that well known hotel the guest of the evening was lured into one of the dining rooms which was in darkness but his arrival was signal for the lights to be turned on and Mr. Chamberlain found himself in the midst of a gathering of friends seated at a table beautifully decorated and loaded with the most tempting liquid and solid refreshments and an immense cake with 72 lighted candles.

Several hours were passed in enjoyment of the meal and in conclusion, Johnny Johnston acting as toastmaster, many felicitous speeches were made and Mr. Chamberlain was wished many happy returns of the occasion. Among the presents given him were a handsome satchel and an Elks' penknife, the latter being the gift of Mrs. W. W. Hull of San Carlos.

Those who were present were the following: P. P. Chamberlain, A. D. Walsh, J. F. Johnston, Guy F. Hull, Henry Steinberger, H. W. Schaberg, Asa Hull, Chas. Landscheit, J. A. Genocchio, Carl Muller, Joe Perry.

High School Students to Present Original Opera

Every fall for several years, the high school has put on a musical entertainment which has always pleased the people of Redwood. Mr. Carrington's work in this respect is invariably well received. But next month the music section will put on an opera, "The Windmills of Holland," which has the unique distinction of being an original composition of Mr. Carrington's. Although he has gotten out a number of songs and other compositions, this is the first that has been offered to the public. The opera is now being rehearsed by the students and will be handled in their customary way. The dialogue is amusing, the characters thoroughly Dutch, the costumes quaint and every number is full of pleasing catchy airs. Tickets will be placed on sale in a few days and the people of the community are asked to participate in making this initial production of Mr. Carrington's a financial as well as a musical success. It will be given on November 22d.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE ON WHITE SLAVERY EVIL.

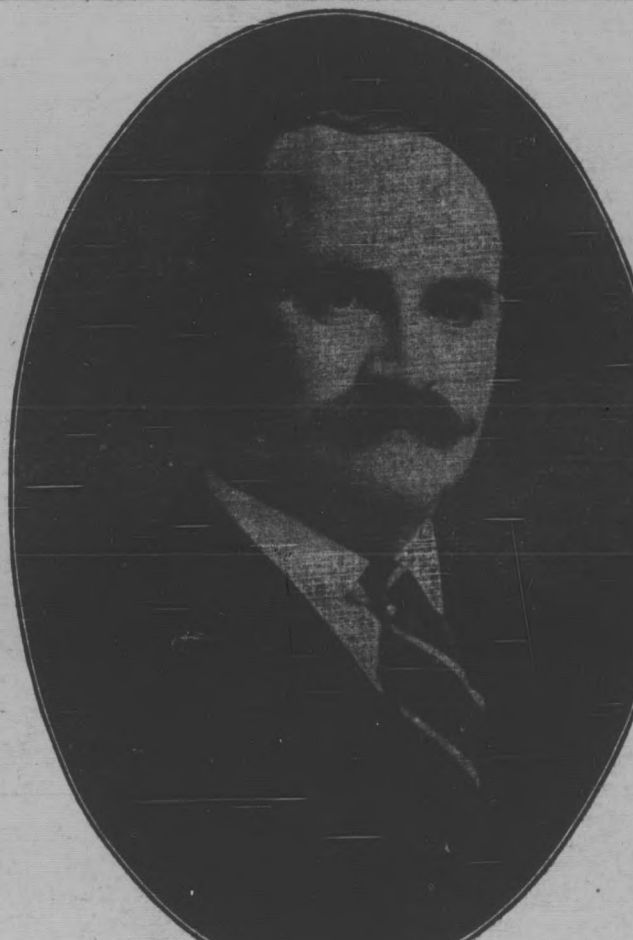

The Redwood City Woman's Club invites all the women of Redwood to John G. Lawlor's lecture, illustrated with eighty lantern slides at the Bell Theatre next Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The subject will be "A Newspaper Reporter's Experience in the Underworld." Mr. Lawlor is secretary of the society for the abolition of white slavery in San Francisco. He has lectured before the Theosophical Society of San Francisco, the Unitarian club of Alameda, Berkeley school of music and dramatic art, and many others. He is also scheduled to speak at Mills College, the University of California and to the First Hebrew congregation of Oakland.

Country Districts.

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO.

At the last meeting of the city council Jerry Horke was appointed auditor.

The seventh annual ball of South San Francisco, O. E., will be given by the Aerie, F. O. E., on Saturday evening at Metropolitan hall.

Friends of H. C. Rodgers in this city are now predicting that he will be elected supervisor next Tuesday by one of the largest majorities ever given. He is assured of a vote from this city.

A branch of the Panama-Pacific Women's Board was organized in this city on Thursday afternoon.

John Coffinberry of Garret, Ind., died Tuesday morning at the home of his brother, W. H. Coffinberry in this city. Deceased had been in poor health for some time and had been visiting here in hope of relief.

SAN BRUNO NOTES.

A grand Rodgers rally will take place next, Monday evening, November 4th at Green's hall. Able speakers will address the citizens to be followed with a time assured all and a splendid time is assured all. Everything free. Come and enjoy yourself.

H. C. Rodgers, the next supervisor will be there.

J. F. Faber, a resident of San Bruno died Thursday morning. He was a good, kind man, one who was universally esteemed for his excellent qualities.

John H. Leonard, the Democratic candidate for senate, will get all the Taft Republican voters here. They will not vote for the bull moose.

SAN MATEO AND BURLINGAME.

The fourth attempt of the trustees of Burlingame school district to secure money for the erection of school buildings for the district by means of a bond issue, last Friday success, the election last Friday having carried by a substantial majority.

Another San Mateo school keeper has found the business unprofitable, to the sorrow of his creditors.

J. Corbett has appealed to the bankruptcy court for relief from his debts, stating that he owes $1,450, as against which he claims that his only asset is a suit of clothes which he values at $25.

The outdoor vaudeville and "follies of the dolls" given by the San Mateo Woman's Club proved both a social and financial success. The affair was largely attended and will net the club about $300.

BELMONT NEWS NOTES

Miss Bethel Bain is visiting her friend Miss Elma Hansen.

The game of rugby between the Belmont school and Palo Alto on Tuesday was won by Belmont, the score being 3 to 0.

Miss Emma Reid is confined to her home suffering from a sprained ankle which she received while playing basketball.

Don't forget the Belmont Club dance. A good time is assured and special music has been engaged. At the club hall, November 2nd.

Mrs. Le Gerde, who was taken to the Lane Hospital last week suffering with stomach trouble, was brought home on Tuesday, her condition being much improved.

Ralston avenue came near getting cleaned, but it will take a few more applications of the scraper before it will be presentable.

IN MEMORIAM.

A pioneer with thoughts beyond his age. A soul advanced in wisdom and in worth. A builder of the nation, on virgin page. Of unity and peace, to spring to birth.

No power that wrought for good, can ever die. Unwearied, though changing years may fly. The stream of nature flows and ever gives.

Before thou art not wholly gone. Thy spirit blends itself to other tasks. To help the nation in its busy strife. And Peace the crown, is all thou leaves.

And may some ray shine forth from thy great soul. And shed on struggling hearts a clearer light. And Freedom, Right and Unity the goal. Chasing in lustre more divine, our sight.

IN MEMORIAM.

Assemble in our school buildings of the fact that the late Horace Hawes was the giver of our first school house as well as contributing largely to the building fund.

Mrs. Robinsons.—In the making of this gift the traits of your father are reflected in you and we hope this occasion will always be a cherished memory.

On behalf of the school I truly thank you and sincerely hope the good deeds of your father will be handed down to generations to come through your children's children.

P. H. McEvoy and Chase Littlejohn who were school boys in Redwood City fifty years ago and who were personally familiar with Mr. Hawes and his deeds of kindness, some have addresses and recalled some interesting historical incidents of those early days. One feature on which both dwell was the annual picnic that Mr. Hawes gave to the boys and girls and the presents that he gave them, Mr. Littlejohn exhibiting a book a present from the old gentleman that had been in his possession since boyhood.

Mrs. John B. Schroeder read the following original poem:

IN MEMORIAM.

WITH AN INSURANCE POLICY IN HAND
you will not be worried to death every time the engine turns out. They won't mean such a possibility of ruin to you. The freedom from worry is alone worth the cost of the insurance. Have you got you out a policy today and even if you never have a fire, the sense of protection will be worth more than the cost of the policy.

STUDENTS WILL JOINTLY DISCUSS CANDIDATES

The campaign this fall to be decided next Tuesday, has a triangular aspect. The conditions are unique and many voters have not time to thoroughly ascertain the qualifications of the various candidates for office. As very valuable assistance in this particular the high school invites the public to attend the discussion this Saturday night at the high school building at which time five members of the student body will present the claims maintained by the various candidates.

These boys have taken the trouble to search out and collect data bearing on the political questions of the day of which not one man in twenty-five will have any knowledge. Despite the fact that these boys are students, they will present discussions to nearly every one who may hear them. It is desired to have the school room taxed to its capacity. The discussion will start at 8 p. m. The boys to speak are:

Frank Griffin, Theo. Roosevelt.
Ray Griffin, Woodrow Wilson.
Chas. Newhall, Wm. H. Taft.
Earl Eikenkotter, Eugene Debs.
Andrew Stewart, Mr. Charlin.

Senator Felton Explains Attitude.

MENLO PARK, Oct. 30.—Senator Charles N. Felton has announced his enlistment with the great army of California Republicans whose votes will be cast for Wilson as a rebuke to the bull moose machine which denied them their constitutional right to vote for President Taft and the Republican platform.

California had no stronger, no more loyal Republican than former Senator Charles N. Felton. For many years before he went to the United States Senate he was an enthusiastic, energetic and effective party worker in the best sense of that term. Since his retirement from the Senate his energies and his pocketbook have been generously at the disposal of his party.

Senator Felton makes the following declaration: "Governor Wilson is an exceedingly brilliant man. He is a man fitted to be president of the United States. As between what he stands for and represents and what Roosevelt and his party represent, I can see but one choice. I shall vote for Governor Wilson."

In the Superior Court of the County of San Mateo, State of California, do hereby certify that the undersigned, Hazel R. Hyatt, Plaintiff, vs. Edgar Hyatt, Defendant.

Action brought in the Superior Court of the County of San Mateo, State of California, do hereby certify that the undersigned, Hazel R. Hyatt, Plaintiff, vs. Edgar Hyatt, Defendant.

The People of the State of California and greeting to Edgar Hyatt.

You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above named Plaintiff, in the Superior Court of the County of San Mateo, State of California, and answer the complaint filed therein within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this summons, if served within said County; if served elsewhere within thirty days.

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer, the plaintiff may take judgment for any money or damages demanded in the complaint as arising upon the facts and circumstances therein stated, or for other relief demanded in the complaint.

Witness my hand and the seal of the Superior Court of the County of San Mateo, State of California, this 26th day of October, A. D. 1912.

Seal By A. L. Lowe, Deputy Clerk.

CONTROLLED DEPARTMENT

To the Tax Collector of the County of San Mateo, State of California:

Whereas, on various dates, there were filed in the County of San Mateo, State of California, certain deeds conveying to the people of the State of California, the title to certain lots and parcels of land hereinafter described:

And, whereas, five years have elapsed since the said deeds were filed, and according to law, have been made of said property, or any part thereof:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the law, and in accordance with the provisions of Section 20, of the County of San Mateo, State of California, do hereby certify that the undersigned, Arthur Morley, administrator of the estate of Wm. Morley, deceased, to the creditors of said deceased, to exhibit them with the necessary vouchers, within four months after the first publication of this notice, to-wit: October 23d, 1912, to the said administrator of the estate of Wm. Morley, deceased, in the County of San Mateo, State of California, the same being the place hereby designated by said administrator for the transaction of the business of the said estate of Wm. Morley, deceased, in the County of San Mateo, State of California.

Accuracy—Safety—Low Price

Many crack marksmen, now world famous, owe their training of eye and hand to one of these single shot, take-down rifles. We have made the price for the No. 4 and No. 6 rifles low enough to permit everyone to become acquainted with the Remington-UMC qualities of accuracy and safety.

Both rifles have case-hardened frames, walnut stock and fore-arm and rifle butt plates.

The No. 6 (22 or 32 calibre) has Remington-UMC steel barrel, is accurately rifled and chambered for caps, short or long, and has new design open front, rear and long peep sights. Price $4.00.

The No. 4 (22, 25-10 and 32 calibre) has an octagon barrel of Remington-UMC steel, automatic ejector and sporting rear sights. List price, 6.00
